

Fo Guang Shan Hsi Fang Temple

2024 Offerings to the Sangha

Auspicious greetings to all our Dharma supporters,

We thank you for your continued support since the establishment of Fo Guang Shan Buddhist Order which help the venerables to continuously focus on the Dharma propagation and Buddhist cultivation. As the annual Ullambana Festival (a.k.a. Sangha Day) is approaching, you may continue to show your support to the Sangha. The Buddha said, "The true meaning of offering to the Sangha is:

- Making offering, is not to see the crowd but for the Sangha to focus in cultivation;
- Making offering, is not for individual but for the whole community;
- Making offering, is not for a meal but for whole year;
- Making offering, is not for now but for the future.

As Buddhists with right understanding and earnest support in Buddhism, we hope that you will continue to donate to the Sangha for food, clothing, daily needs, medical care and other etc.

Wishing everyone "May You Be Free As Cloud and Water, Auspicious, and Joyful."
